

We are all aligned with a shared mission to drive impact and value for our investors, by supporting growth and innovation in the circular economy.

A shared mission

Our foundation rests on the principles of honesty, accountability, and trust. We diligently safeguard our investments and uphold our collective mission.

Integrity-driven stewards

At Circularity everyone makes the tea. We leave no room for egos, fostering a culture of teamwork and having each other's backs. We empower each other to be our best selves to ensure a shared success.

No egos & mutual support

We exhibit conviction when making decisions and work to promote a culture that encourages challenge and debate to arrive at the best outcomes.

Courage of conviction

We encourage entrepreneurialism to drive resourcefulness, agility and proactive thinking to overcome challenges.

Fostering resourcefulness

Our commitment to excellence remains unwavering as we strive to continually improve how we operate as a hands-on, supportive, domain expert investor.

Continual improvement
